REMEDY INTERACTIVE'S RSIGUARD SOFTWARE NAMED "BEST IN TEST" RSIGUARD EARNS TOP SCORE IN EVALUATION BY IDG

SAUSALITO, CALIFORNIA – NOVEMBER 1, 2005 – Remedy Interactive, Inc., announced today that its RSIGuard software received the "Best in Test" award from the International Data Group publication Mikrodatorm. The staff at Mikrodatorm, a sister publication to CIO and PC World, conducted a thorough evaluation of ergonomic intervention software applications from around the world.

In the Mikrodatorm article, RSIGuard version 4 Stretch Edition was tested against four other products from different international software publishers. RSIGuard received praise for its deep functionality, effectiveness and user-friendliness. The Mikrodatorm noted, "RSIGuard is a great program with smart functionality." RSIGuard received the highest score in the evaluation.

"We are pleased to receive this award from a leading publisher of computer magazines," said Kimberly Lopez, Chief Executive Officer of Remedy Interactive. "Our goal is to be the world's leading provider of injury prevention solutions. Achieving the top score from this rigorous evaluation demonstrates that we are achieving that goal."

RSIGuard software is one of many solutions that Remedy Interactive delivers to help organizations prevent injuries in the workplace. Remedy Interactive's solutions are founded on the premise that the least expensive injury is the one that never happens.

The results of the evaluation are published in a recent issue (#12, 2005) of Mikrodatorm.
